Jim Henneberry resigns as CEO of Australian Paper

Jim Henneberry has resigned from the position of Chief Executive Officer at Australian Paper after eight years with the company.

This was announced to staff and stakeholders on Friday, 31 January 2014.

Jim made the difficult decision to leave Australian Paper in order to pursue new opportunities outside of the business. His resignation is effective from 14 February 2014.

Australian Paper thanks Jim for his dedication and commitment to the company since joining in 2006. We wish him success in the next endeavour.

Until further notice, Mr Hirofumi Fujimori, the Representative Director of Australian Paper's holding company Nippon Paper Industries, is the Acting CEO.
